National Registered Testing Pool (NRTP NADA) Inclusion Criteria for Athletes
National Anti-Doping Agency of Belarus
2015

Athletes fall under the jurisdiction of the National Anti-Doping Agency (NADA Belarus) if:

- they are not included in the International Registered Testing Pool;
- they are included in nominal lists of national sports teams that compete in Olympic Games, Youth Olympic Games, Delympics, Special Olympics, World and European Championships, World and European Cups (including juniors);
- they receive State/municipal and/or NOC funding and demonstrate highly competitive results at National Championships and Cups (including juniors);
- they have previously been disqualified or are currently serving the period of ineligibility;
- they have records of previous anti-doping rules violations, including abnormal biological parameters (steroid profiles);
- they resume competing after retirement;
- they are selected by NADA Belarus for the reasons of biological blood passport development;
- they demonstrate unexpectedly high results relative to the previously consistent level of performance in the previous review period (quarter, half-year, year);
- they are competing in sports that are in the potential prohibited substance use risk group;
- they have previous records of cooperating with a third party (such as another athlete, coach or doctor) that was previously involved in anti-doping rule violation cases;
- in respect of such athletes either relevant credible information has been obtained from a third party or analytical data has been collected by NADA Belarus.
